

American Indian Heritage Celebration Planning Committee
2010 HONORING OUR TRADITIONS NOMINATION FORM

'Respecting Our Traditions' is part of the theme for the 5th Annual American Indian Heritage Celebration. This year we would like to Honor American Indian People who have maintained their Tribal traditions in either their respective Tribal community, urban communities or in other capacities as people who have made a difference.

Any American Indian Person Is Eligible To Be Nominated

We invite you to nominate People who represent their respective Nations, Tribes and/or Bands. Any person who has maintained their Tribal traditions in some form and kept it alive for their community (i.e. basket weaving, jewelry making, language, dance, music, art, pottery, story telling, politics, outreach, etc...) . We encourage you to nominate contemporary People or from the past; alive or deceased. Provide as much information as possible. The statements of the HONORED TRADITIONAL LEADERS will be read throughout the day of the AIHC, and a presentation board of all the HONORED TRADITIONAL LEADERS will be on display in Montgomery Hall.
